Alma Mater

Dear old Zanesville High, we love you,
 And for you we'll ever cheer;
 And the praises we are singing
 Will echo year to year,
 Like an old friend ever faithful
 We are with you do or die;
 You're the right school,
 Blue and White School,
 Dear old Zanesville High.

"Onward, upward" is our motto
 Through the long and happy days;
 And the victories we are winning
 Will add new praise to praise;
 While for you, dear Alma Mater,
 We will sing you to the sky,
 "You're the right school,
 Blue and White School,
 Dear old Zanesville High."

Music, 1st and 2nd Stanzas
 Bernard Mechling, '15

3rd Stanza,
 Sarah Wilhelm, '25.

With a loyalty unmeasured,
 We will guard your honored name;
 We will strive with hearts unflinching
 To bring you added fame,
 Tho' life calls us from our home town,
 In our dreams we'll hear the cry,
 "You're the right school,
 Blue and White School,
 Dear old Zanesville High."

A. B., A. M. Gettysburg College

B. S. in Ed. Ohio University

TESTIMONIAL

Happy are our memories of the days when J. R. Richards was principal at Grover Cleveland. In him one found a man with whom children had such fun, and whose judgment and advice they sought. His was the responsibility, the pleasure, and sometimes the pain of developing young brains, of inspiring initiative, ingenuity, and loyalty among students and teachers alike. We knew that in Mr. Richards we had a friend, a kind adviser, and an associate whose aim has always been to make life a little happier and a little better for everyone. A principal with the keen intellect, the Christian spirit, and the genial nature that Mr. Richards possesses is indeed a rare gift to any school.

Signed: CLARK E. McCURDY, B. S., M. A.

Dean of Boys

Grover Cleveland Junior High School
Zanesville, Ohio.

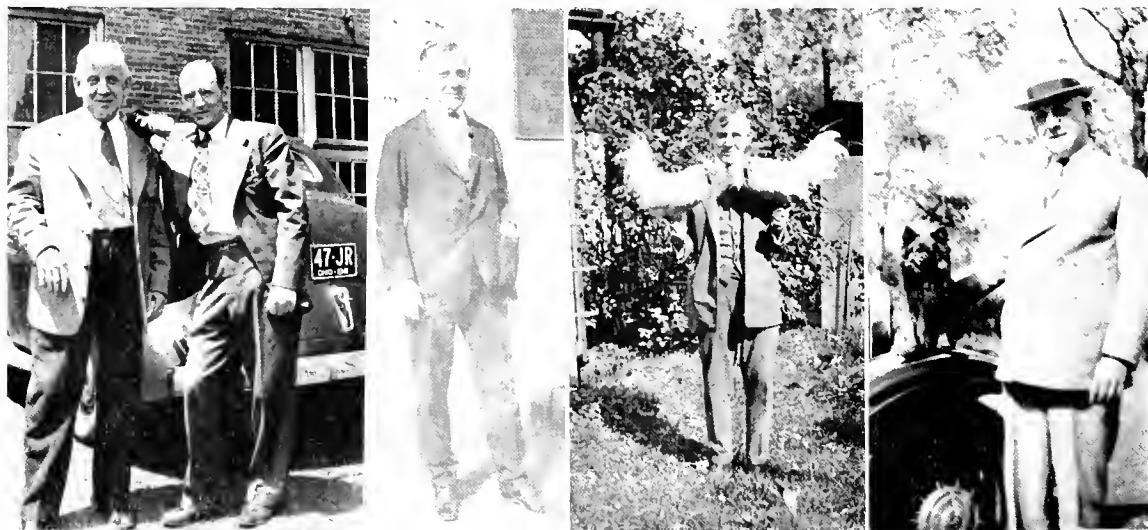

Top: Russ Waters, Bob McGee, Doris White, Bill Maddox, Richard Parsons, Charles Crippen, Howard Jones, Dean Baughman, Dean Meyers, Walter Windland, Boh Moody, Carl Jellison, Ray Dickerson, Bob Ellenberger, Leon Miller, Benny Hilder, Clyde Smittley. Bottom: Jean Smedley, Ruth James, Robert Lutz, R. D. Craig, Edward Jesse, Bob Lashley, John Schultheis, Dick Smith.

The last years of teaching by Mr. Richards were spent as a member of the Vocational department of Lash Senior High School. He taught these fellows, pictured above, English, and United States History. It is altogether right and fitting that our COMUS, with its industrial theme, should be dedicated to him.

TESTIMONIAL

One of the fondest memories of my pre-High School days is my association with "J. R." at Grover Cleveland Junior High. His patient understanding, fairness, and kindly guidance were a constant directive in our growing-up in the family of men.

ROBERT H. WORSTALL (Class 1940).

1. With Mr. McCurdy at Grover Cleveland.
2. Long ago when first at Lash.

3. With two prize roosters given him by Dr. O'Neal.
4. With his dog.

PREPAREDNESS

For all your days prepare,
And meet them ever alike;
When you are the anvil, bear—
When you are the hammer, strike.

The Senior Dramatics Class Presents

"NINE GIRLS"

By Wilfrid H. Pettit

Lash Auditorium

Friday, November 16, 1945

8:15 P. M.

ASSETS: The director, Miss Marie Mill, and the casts are always assets.

CAST

(In order of their speaking)

Jane	Harriet Matson
Phyllis	Dorothy Culbertson
Eve	Mary Westbrook
Freida	Patty Clapper
Alice	Jeanne Lewis
Sharon ("Glamorpuss")	Patty Summers
Shirley, a pledge	Shirley Goldstein
Tennessee, a pledge	Nancy L. Smith
Stella ("Shotput")	Peggi Cain
Mary	Shirley Zwelling

Place: The entire action is laid in the front room of a Sorority Clubhouse in California's Sierra Nevada Mountains.

Prologue: An evening in Spring.

ACT ONE:

Scene One. A Saturday evening, three years earlier.

Scene Two. Late the same night.

ACT TWO:

Scene One. Sunday morning.

Scene Two. Sunday night.

CREDITS

Director	Miss Marie E. Mill
Sound Effects	Harry Mangold
Stage Crew	Junior Speech Classes
Make-up	Senior Dramatics Class, Naomi Reed, David Judy

LIABILITIES: The whole auditorium is a liability. The two dressing rooms are much too small and besides they are used for storage. Back stage has no room for stage properties, furniture, sets, or equipment. It is painfully crowded. The stage proper is thirteen feet deep by forty-two feet wide. The product of the means does not equal the product of the extremes. The lights leave us in darkness; the floor boards squeak; but still the show goes on.

George Gibbs, George Nichols.
Bonnie Moore, Emily Webb.

SEPTEMBER

- 4—First day back! I wish you'd see the Sophomores. What are they trying to do—out run the Senior class? Same teachers are back, but names are changed, Mrs. to Miss!
- 5—Did anyone get his schedule changed? Tell me who blocked for you. I couldn't get past the office door.
- 6—We arrived with our homework done. Am I kidding? Fellowship had a meeting. I think Teddy got the worst of it.
- 7—Down and down they came, all the many colored streamers, while everyone enjoyed himself at the Back-to-School dance.
- 8—They drive a good bargain. I mean the Hi-Y pencil venders.
- 10—Beginning with the first period D. O. Z. had their first meeting. Wherein they decided to change the Constitution.
- 11—Boy, what a Boosters meeting we had last night! It was held at the stadium after the rain went away. Our boys are in good shape for their first game Friday.

SEPTEMBER—Continued

- 12—The new officers for Retailing are Bob Pollock, Pres.; Bill McClellan, Vice-Pres.; Sara Crist, Sec.; and W. C. Smith, Treas.
- 13—Why were the Juniors smiling on the seniors today? Oh, the senior D. O. Z. members are voting for juniors.
- 14—Just before the game, a pink sunset. It was a good game. The dance at Teen Tyme was a great success, but crowded.
- 17—"We are going to be very mean to our pledges," say the L.L.C.'s.
- 21—Tough game this evening, but we came out on top. And the poor little D. O. Z. pledges survived the ordeal. Most of them got sick on their sponsors' candy. (Fine thing.)
- 22—All the seniors were busy having their pictures snapped. Everyone went to the De Molay dance; good music, plenty of room.
- 25—G. A. A. had its first meeting in the Chemistry room today. They are voting for their new members.
- 26—First meeting of Ifka for Sophomores. Good singing. How's the "Itsy Bitsy Spider," girls?
- 28—Lancaster's swamped! Over 400 Lash students attend game there.

- 2—See some queer things in long underwear stalking our halls? Merely L. L. C.'s pledges.
- 3—Been caught! Well, watch out! The Monitors are in the halls.
- 4—Those red cards aren't dangerous. They're for the boosters meeting.
- 5—Band from Alliance was competition for our hard-working horn blowers. D. O. Z. sponsored the dance after the game.
- 9—Ifka girls are going to be regular Esther Williams, they say. The Y. M. started a rhythmic swimming class.
- 10—Broken dreams this morning! COMUS is taking pictures. No classes. Poor G. A. A. pledges posed in initiation suits.
- 12—Miss Fox, please don't worry. Your librarians will come back. They just went to Marietta to cheer up our team.
- 16—The weather was frightful, but we kept warm somehow when we went on the Lutheran League haywagon ride.

THE STRIKE

On November 7, 1945, Zanesville High School pupils walked out. We had been let down by the voters of Zanesville. The School Bond issue had failed. It was not the first time—twice before it had happened. We were lured back by the promise of a special election. It was held, but also failed. It matters little to the citizens of Zanesville that their children work in a fire trap, for their slogan is "Vive Lash!"

OCTOBER—Continued

- 18—Tonight was the night for the Presbyterian wolves to howl. Their Fellowship had a haywagon ride.
19—"Calling All Girls," a new club sponsored by Weber's. Father's night, but we lost to Cambridge. Hi-Y sponsored the dance.
20—Who was who at the Librarians' haywagon ride?
21—Ugh! Grease paint everywhere. It's St. Thomas dress rehearsal.
22-23—Stage fright? Sure, but the show must go on.
25—Rain, rain go away, but it came down like cats and dogs. We had a football game and lost. Bad luck.
31—Blue Devils everywhere. We cut them out for the D. O. Z. float.

NOVEMBER

- 2—Homecoming and no rain. The hard work on the floats showed up. Ifka's truck was late, yet they won. Retailers gave a wonderful dance. The queen, Bonnie Barnes looked radiant.
3—What a train the O. S. U. band made at the Northwestern game!

- 8—Back in school. A committee is formed for a new election.
- 9—Beautiful talented girls in that girl orchestra we heard today.
- 10—Mr. Schneider's English classes went to Denison, Wesleyan, and Ohio State on field trips. Rain drowned our enthusiasm for college.
- 11—Were you at the Point Joint? Some argument and almost a fight. About our team? Who won? Why, we did, of course!
- 13—Did you wonder? I did. Where did all those good-looking boys come from? Well, Hi-Y had a district conference. Huba! Huba!
- 17—Flash! Monkeys have their pictures taken! Referring to the Comus staff.

DECEMBER—Continued

- 6—This is the fatal day, so most of the seniors think. Themes for Mr. Schneider are due. This is one pleasure we willingly will to all juniors and sophomores.
- 7—Try, try, again. Will Fellowship ever have their Candle Light party? We nearly froze this morning. You know, no coal. So everyone had a jolly time in the auditorium.
- 8—Why did we lose to Uhrichsville by only one point?
- 9—One casualty, a swollen thumb because the hammer slipped at the Hanging of the Greens at the Y. W.
- 12—We got gyped. Part of the 6th period was cut so that we could be dismissed at 3:30. Well, we won't miss the movie "Suez" for anything.
- 19—For the more blood-thirsty the Mayor had his annual wrestling show to raise money for the "Kiddies Christmas Dinner." And what a time people had with their live stock.
- 20—One of our poor substitutes had a shock today when his whole class brought in trimmings for a Christmas party.

- 21—I think I know what sardines feel like after we got packed in that pew today. The annual Christmas chapel was held at Grace M. E.. Just before school was out the three janitors wished the school a Merry Christmas.
- 24—Woe is me! It's the day before Christmas and I am just beginning to shop. Will anyone get any presents?
- 25—Guess what day this is? Guess! Guess! CHRISTMAS!!!
- 26—The only girls up at 9:00 o'clock were the D. O. Z. They trimmed all day for the dance, then danced all night.
- 27—What a blow! Our School Bond failed again. Tonight was the “Calling All Girls” Dance. Two dances in a row!! Will my feet stand it?? Oh! I don't know.
- 28—Old and new met at the Annual Alumni D. O. Z. and Librarians Tea. I am afraid the officers all gained weight!
- 29—Shame on you, Fellowship!!! And you know why. How was Ivor Rusk's stag party for the “Clasped Hands?”

- 4—Flash !! A truck just fell through Market street. It's really true.
- 6—"I feel so gay, in a melancholy way, that it might as well be spring." So everyone went for a walk.
- 7—Poor ZANESVILLIAN had to move out this morning because COMUS started taking underclassmen's pictures.
- 8—Warning! Don't scratch your head! One junior thus photographed.
- 9—"Hands Off" that beautiful girl on the Courier calendar.
- 11—We played Marietta tonight. We had a wild time. The score was 49 to 50. In the last minutes of the game, Marietta got 2 baskets. Woe is me! !

15—Who said the COMUS staff does not work hard? We had a dead-line to make and were we eager beavers, believe me.

26—At last! Candle Light Party by Fellowship and the lights were turned down SO low. Some fun!!!

FEBRUARY

1—The band gave an "after-the-game" dance. Turn about is fair play.

5—Was I ever hungry when I saw the S. A. C. candy and cookies? I felt sorry for the 6th period kids.

6—Movie, "The Great American Broadcast." Was I ever bored?

8—Teen Tyme is growing. The new furniture was donated by Rotary.

9—Even the gentlemen were pressed into service when D. O. Z. decorated for their annual Valentine Dance. Remember the floor show?

12—Have a heart? Hearts were sold with war stamps today.
